The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday October 16. to Thursday October 19. 1704.

St. James's, October 17. The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of London.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop of London, the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, and the reſt of the Clergy of the Dioceſe of London.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, the Biſhop of London, the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, and the reſt of the Clergy of the Dioceſe of London, offer up our moſt hearty Praiſes and Thankſgivings to God for that great Victory obtained by the Forces of Your Majeſty and Your Allies, under the Command of Your Captain General the Duke of Marlborough; which is ſo Glorious an Action, as will adorn the Hiſtory of Your Majeſty's Reign, and perpetuate the Memory of Your great General beyond the Power of Envy and Detraction; and likewiſe for the great Advantages obtained by Your Majeſty's Fleet under the Command and happy Conduct of Sir George Rooke: Which Succeſſes at Land and Sea, we hope have ſo ſettled the Crown upon Your Majeſty's Head, and the Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line, that all the Power of France ſhall never be able to unſettle it again.

This is not only a great Joy and Triumph to Your Subjects, but a new Acceſſion of Power and Glory to Your Majeſty, which we doubt not but You will improve, not only for the Advantage of Your Subjects, and the Peace and Security of Your own Reign, but for the Protection of Proteſtants abroad, which Your Allies of the Romiſh Communion, who have been preſerved by Your Arms, cannot deny to Your Majeſty's Interceſſion.

God grant Your Majeſty the Hearts of all Your Subjects, and the Necks of Your Enemies; that while they perſue the ſame Counſels, You may have repeated Occaſions to viſit Your Cathedral of St. Paul's, to praiſe God for more Glorious Succeſſes than theſe, which have already ſo much outdone whatever we have yet ſeen.

And we beg Leave upon this ſolemn Occaſion to renew in particular thoſe Thankful Acknowledgments to Your Majeſty, which were made in all our Names by the Addreſs of the Convocation, for Your great Bounty to the Clergy, in granting the Firſt-Fruits and Tenths for the Augmentation of ſmall Vicarages; which, as we have reaſon to believe, has contributed to theſe glorious Succeſſes, ſo we pray Almighty God to reward Your Majeſty with a long and proſperous Reign over us, to the laſting Settlement of this Truly Primitive and Apoſtolick Church in Unity and Peace.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Chriſt-Church was preſented to Her Majeſty by William Ettricke Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants, of Your Majeſty's Borough of Chriſt-Church in the County of Southampton.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE humbly crave Leave to Congratulate the Glorious Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Arms by Land and Sea; and to declare the grateful Senſe we have of the Happineſs which we and all Your Subjects enjoy under Your Majeſty's moſt Auſpicious Reign.

Your Majeſty's great Clemency and Goodneſs have juſtly rendred You the Joy and Delight of Your People; and Your repeated Victories have made You the Terror of Your Enemies.

The Wiſdom of Your Councils, the Expedition and Vigour in the Execution of them; and Your Majeſty's moſt admirable Prudence in the Direction of all Your Affairs both at at home and abroad; will be Celebrated to all after Ages.

The late unparallel'd Victory obtained by the Forces of Your Majeſty and Your Allies, under the Command of Your Majeſty's wiſe and brave General the Duke of Marlborough; and the late Defeat of the French Fleet by Your Majeſty's Navy, under the Conduct of Sir George Rooke; are to be aſcribed (next to the Aſſiſtance of Divine Providence) to Your Majeſty's diſcerning Judgment in the Appointment of ſuch excellent Commanders. And we alſo moſt thankfully acknowledge the great Care of his Royal Highneſs, Your Lord High Admiral, in the Choice of Perſons employed in Your Naval Services.

That Heaven may continue theſe Bleſſings to us, by preſerving Your Majeſty's Health, and by giving You long Life, and Victory and Succeſs in all Your Glorious Undertakings; are our inceſſant and devout Prayers.

The following Addreſs from the Town of Nottingham was preſented to Her Majeſty by William Pierrepont Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, and Thomas Trigg Gent. one of the Aldermen of the ſaid Town; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Kingſton.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham.

GIve us Leave (moſt Gracious Sovereign) to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon that compleat Victory obtained by Your Forces, in Conjunction with Your Allies, under the valiant Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough: An Action which will for ever reflect a Luſtre upon Your Majeſty's Reign! For nothing leſs than that Prudence and Reſolution which Your Majeſty every day ſhews in the Adminiſtration of Affairs, could have made Your Subjects exert their Strength and true Engliſh Valour, which (by Divine Providence) has diſappointed the moſt promiſing Hopes of Your Enemies. May this Your Zeal be ever attended with Peace at home, and Victory abroad. May Your Majeſty's Life be prolonged to reſtore the Liberty of Europe, and maintain the juſt Rights and Privileges of all Your Subjects: And after a Glorious Reign here, may You be bleſſed with Immortality in Glory.

Dated the 2d day of October, in the Third Year of Your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs has alſo been preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of Your Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, and High-Bayliff for the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter; together with the Grand-Jury aſſembled at the Quarter Seſſions of the Peace held in Weſtminſter-Hall the 4th day of October, 1704.

MAY it pleaſe Your Majeſty to give us Leave to Congratulate the Glorious and Unparallel'd Victories lately obtained by Your Majeſty's Forces, under the Command of the Renowned Duke of Marlborough; and Your Succeſs at Sea, with the taking of Gibraltar, under the Conduct of Sir George Rooke: Which Victories have Eſtabliſhed Your Majeſty to be the Protector and Preſerver of the Liberties of Europe.

And that Your Majeſty may always continue to be ſo, and Your Arms always Conquer, and Your Majeſty have a long, happy and proſperous Reign over us; ſhall ever be our Prayers.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very Graciouſly.

Vienna, October 11. Letters from Presbourg of the 9th Inſtant give an Account, That the Sieur Occoluciani, one of the Deputies of the Malecontents in Hungary, arrived there that day with Paſſes from Prince Ragotzi for the Imperial Commiſſaries, and the Envoy of the States General, who had reſolved to ſet out the 13th for Schemnitz, the Place of Treaty. Some little Diſputes hap, notwithſtanding the Ceſſation, happened between the Inhabitants of the Country about Presbourg and the Malecontents, which had all been accommodated thro' the Mediation of the States Envoy; and we have hitherto a fairer Proſpect than could be expected of
